

2019 Junior Commissioner Presentation

By Daniel O'Connell

Update to 2018 Project

- Township purchased a hybrid police vehicle
 - 2020 Ford Police Interceptor Utility
 - Saves town $3500 per year
 - Gas and Idling
- Economic and Environmentally friendly
 - Idle without engine

Ramapo Environmental Outreach

- Working with Ramapo Environmental Club
 - Currently selling reusable straws
 - Vantic
 - Allocating earnings into outreach
- Organizing event with Eisenhower
 - Recycling item collection at Ramapo and Eisenhower
 - Bottles
 - Bags
 - Etc
 - Education on Recycling

Eisenhower Event

- Held after school
- Communicate with Science teachers
 - Discuss potential extra credit opportunity
- Begins with educational event
 - Dual stream
 - Good recycling habits
 - RecycleCoach

Eisenhower Event

- Transition into a Team Competition
 - Design and create a costume
 - Using recycled materials
 - Similar to plastic bagman costume
- Winning groups receives a prize
 - Funding will be provided by Reusable straw sale
 - Food
 - Prizes

Benefits

- Education
 - Returned to parents
- Promote Commission Events
 - TUTU
 - Materials to distribute
- Inspiration
 - Middle School Students

This project was completed as part of the Wyckoff Environmental Commission's Junior Commissioner program. Junior Commissioner Daniel O'Connell, a student at Ramapo High School in the class of 2020, created this project and completed the research for the project. December 2019